

Asia Pacific Ursuline Conference
on “Integrity of the Human Person vis-à-vis Human Trafficking”

Baan Phu Waan, Sampran, Thailand
October 18 – 22, 2011

The Province of Thailand of the Ursulines of the Roman Union will host a conference for Ursuline Sisters and their collaborators from Australia, India, Indonesia, Japan, Philippines and Taiwan on the “Integrity of the Human Person vis-à-vis Human Trafficking”. This topic was agreed upon at the regional meeting of the provincials of the Roman Union of Asia Pacific in order to respond to the 2007 Chapter Message mandating JPIC to focus on this issue. The purpose of this conference is to provide a forum for the Ursulines and their collaborators to be able to study together and learn from one another.

The objectives of the conference are:

1. To bring us to a deeper awareness of the pressing issue of the Integrity of the human person especially with regard to human trafficking in Asia Pacific region.
2. To share experiences and learn together how to respond as Church to the needs of society.
3. To bring together the Ursuline family in Asia and Australia in order to reinforce networking.
